London Heathrow–Tel Aviv, Amsterdam, Kiev and Aleppo Cancellation: re-accommodation procedures

Following last week's announcement regarding the termination of bmi services between London Heathrow and Tel Aviv, Amsterdam, Kiev and Aleppo, please find below re-accommodation options.

Our immediate priority is to re-accommodate passengers booked on these services with the minimum of disruption. The following re-accommodation policy (applicable to BD/236 ticket stock) has been set up to cover all passengers that have been issued tickets (BD/236) on or before 01 December 2009. All passengers that have not already been ticketed will have to make alternative arrangements.
